Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache, and Billous Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the Malaria of mlasmatic countries. That which protects from or prevents this disorder must be of immense service in the communities where it prevails. Prevention is better than cure, for the patient escapes the risk which he must run in violent attacks of this baleful distemper. This "CURE" expels the miasmatic poison of FEVER AND AGUE from the system and prevents the develop ment of the disease, if taken on the first approach of its premonitory symptoms. It is not only the best remedy ever yet discovered for this class of complaints, but also the cheapest. The large quantity we supply for a dollar brings it within the reach of everybody; and in bilious districts, where FEVER AND AGUE prevails, everybody should have it and use it freely both for cure and protection. It is hoped this price will place it within the reach of all—the poor as well ass the rich. A great superiority of this remedy over any other ever discovered for the speedy and certain cure any other ever discovered for the speedy and certain cure of Intermittents is, that it contains no Quinine or mineral, consequently it produces no quinine or other injurious articles.

As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

A GRAND VIRGINIA DISCOVERY. COME FOUR MONTHS SINCE, our excellent townsman NAPHTALI EZEKIEL, informed us that he had prepared a hair restorer with which he was experimenting upon his own head, whose top was entirely bald. We saw him two days since, and on the place so bald four months since, a fine crop of hair has sprung up with a vigorous growth. So convinced is Mr. EZEKIEL of the efficacy of his discovery that he has named it "THE INFALLIBLE VIRGINIA HAIR RESTORER." Mr. E. is about going into an extensive manufacture of an article which is destined to prove of anxious interest to our bald pated friends .- From Richmond Enquirer, December 12th, 1859. This famous article can now be had of the principal Drug-gists. Those persons who desire a fine head of hair, have only to use the restorer according to printed directions on the bottle. Those who have any doubts of its efficacy, can have them removed in a short time, by using the INFALLI-BLE VIRGINIA HAIR RESTORER, proving that it is all that it is claimed to be. Wholesale depot for orders, 69 Main Street.

I, N. EZEKIEL, take oath on the Holy Bible, that I have been baid for the past 12 years, and have restored my hair by using EZEKIEL'S VIRGINIA HAIR RESTORER. NAPHTALI EZEKIEL. This day sworn to before me, by Naphtali Ezekiel. WM. H. LIPPITT, sole Agent for Wilmington, N. C. Jan. 14th, 1860—111-1t-21-12m.

A Reflective Retrospect.

'Tis, twenty years, and something more,
Since, all athirst for useful knowledge,
I took some draughts of classic lore,
Drawn, very mild. at ——rd College;
Vet I remember all that one Yet I remember all that one Could wish to hold in recollection The boys, the joys, the noise, the fun; But not a single Conic Section.

I recollect those harsh affairs,

The morning bells that gave us panics,
I recollect the formal prayers,

That seemed like sessons in Mechanics; I recollect the drowsy way
In which the students listened to them. As clearly, in my wig, to-day,
As when a boy I slumbered through them. I recollect the tutors all As freshly now, if I may say so, As any chapter I recall In Homer or Ovidius Naso.

I recollect, extremely well,
"Old Hugh," the mildest of fanatics;
I well remember Matthew Bell,
But very faintly Mathematics. I recollect the prizes paid For lessons fathomed to the bottom : (Alas, that pencil marks should fade!) I recollect the chaps who got 'em-The light equestrians who soared

O'er every passage reconed stony: And took the chalks—but never scored A single honor to a pony! Ah me! what changes time has wrought, And how predictions have miscarried? A few have reached the goal they sought, And some are dead and some are married! And some in city journal war; And some as politicians bicker:
And some are pleading at the bar,
For jury verdicts or for liquor!

And some on trade and commerce wait. And some in schools with dunces battle : And some the Gospel propagate, And some the choicest breeds of cattle; And some are living at their ease, And some were wrecked in the "revulsion," Some serve the State for hands ome fees, And one, I hear, upon compulsion!

Lamont, who, in his college days Thought e'en a cross a moral scandal, Has left his Puritanic ways, And worships now with bell and candle; And Mann, who mourned the negro's fate, And held the slave as most unlucky, Now holds him, at the market rate, On a plantation in Kentucky! Tom Knox, who swore in such a tone It fairly might be doubted whether
It really was himself alone,
Or Knox and Erebus together—

And, changing oaths from mild entreaty, Now recommends the Christian plan To savages in Otaheite ! Alas, for young Ambition's vow, How envious fate may overthrow it! Poor Harvey in the Congress now, Who struggled long to be a poet; Smith carves (quite well) memorial stones. Who tried in vain to make the law go;

has grown a very altered man

Hall deals in hides; and " Pious Jones Is dealing faro in Chicago! And, sadder still, the briliant Hays, Once honest, manly, and ambitious, Has taken latterly to ways

Extremely profligate and vicious;
By slow degrees—I cannot tell how— He's reached at last the very groundsel, And in New York he figures now, A member of the Common Council!

War Imminent! The notion that war is extremely probable, if not inevitable, in a few months hence, is becoming more general and more consistent every day—war, I mean, between Austria and Piedmont, backed by the Italian populations. are engaged in making purchases in France, and others have, perhaps, arrived in England for the same purpose. Whether France will "drift" into the war I cannot affirm, though it is hard to see how she can keep out of it. Unless we suppose that France and Sardinia are merely affecting an ill-humour in their diplomatic relations, the feeling must be the very contrary of friendly at this moment. If the latter be the case, the Emperor's position a negro woman named JUDA, she is supposed to be lurking in or about the Newkirk settlement in New jesty is decidedly opposed to the annexation of Tuscane to Piedmont; indeed so much so, that he will hardly recognise it if effected, and that his engagements to "the Powers" do not permit of any compromise on this head. It universal suffrage be had recourse to, and if it pronounces in favor of annexation, it will not, I dare say, be the universal suffrage originally meant, but a sort of thing essentially different from that which prevails here; or would in Savoy or Nice, if Savoy and Nice condescend to use the ballot-box. A popular manifestation in these places is preserable, for the popular manifestation

THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES AND THE SEWARDITES -The comprehensive and philosophical statesman easily sees that the Supreme Court is an institution of the greatest value and importance; and none the less so from the fact that the judges, being men, may sometimes make mistakes. Never is it more important to sustain an important department of the Government, than when by the firm discharge of duty it has become unpopular for the time. A judiciary is of comparatively little value if it cannot breast and stem the current of popular prejudice; and never should the wise and strong men of the land rally to the support of the udiciary so stoutly as when it has made itself unpopular by the faithful performance of constitutional duty.-If Mr. Seward were the great statesman that his admirers claim him to be, he would now be defending the Supreme Court against the coarse attacks of his subalterns, instead of lending himself, in his subtle and insidious way, to their aid. There is no better proof of a June, his negro boy PETER. Said Peter is a dark negro, about 18 to 20 years old, 5 feet or 5 feet 6 inchness to submit to a temporary inconvenience or disappointment for the sake of a vital principle. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev.
